Motion to Accept: John Groh Second: Peter Bruno

CORRESPONDENCE: Thank you notes were received from Cristine Sinisi and Robert Eckrote

TREASURER'S REPORT: Cash on hand $27,409. Total Income $65,116. Total Expenses $59,124

Motion to accept: Frank O'Neil Second: John Groh

COMMISSIONER REPORTS:

SOCCER: Peter reports that scheduled practices will begin next week. Registrations are around 200 at this time; which is lower than last years' number. Peter believed that it is because they changed the way forms were handed out at the end of the year. We will receive additional registrations from the kindergarten class in September. Joe Saveteri would like to meet with Joe, Jim and Peter to discuss the handling of supplies for the Shack. Peter and Jim will meet with Totowa to discuss scheduling for the senior division.

BASKETBALL: As we get closer to October we will release the registration forms. John Groh made a suggestion that maybe we should think about merging the towns earlier to avoid the competition between the towns. Ed Ament stated that our Charter is for the children of Little Falls, which is our purpose. Further discussion is needed.

OLD BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS: Ed Ament asked if we need Carding classes for the coaches. John Groh asked about the defibulator training. Joe will arrange a training session on the defibulator for the coaches prior to the season with basic CPR knowledge. Shack coverage continues to be an issue; Additional fees will be given if parents don't volunteer. Do we just increase the registration fee? Ask for a check that is post dated in case they don't volunteer?

Motion to adjourn @ 8:40pm: Frank O'Neil Second: Ed Ament

Next meeting to be held September 3rd @ 8pm.
